Anonymous data and "Cookies"

Most of the information that Lupin collects from its app(s) is anonymous information, such as the pages you visit and the searches you perform. Anonymous information is processed by Lupin to help improve the contents of the App and to compile aggregate statistics about individuals using our App for internal, market research purposes. In so doing, Lupin may install "cookies" that collect the first level domain name of the user (e.g., "bigmail.com" from an e-mail address of "john@bigmail.com") and the date and time of access. "Cookies" by themselves cannot be used to discover the identity of the user. A "cookie" is a small piece of information, which is sent to your browser and stored on your computer's hard drive. Cookies do not damage your computer. You can set your browser to notify you when you receive a "cookie", this will enable you to decide if you want to accept it or not.

Spamming

Lupin does not condone "spamming". Spamming is defined as sending unsolicited e-mails, usually of a commercial nature, in large numbers and repeatedly to individuals with whom the sender has had no previous contact or who have declined to receive such communications. In contrast, Lupin may inform all its visitors of its products, health, or other related information by e-mail, whilst giving you the choice of opting out of such service.

Links to other Apps

This Privacy Policy applies only to Lupin's apps. Lupin may provide links to other apps, which we believe, may be of interest to our visitors. We try to ensure that such apps are of the highest standard. However, Lupin does not guarantee the standards of every app link it provides or be responsible for the contents of non-Lupin Apps.
